The enabling provision in the Municipal Act for framing

Bye laws relating to Meat Stalls u/ Section 48 (1) (b) (ii) It appears necessary to insert this provision in the preamble. The empowering section as amended reads "Section 48 (1) (b) (ii) and (iv)" Yes

The items in respect of which Bye-laws could be framed by a Municipal council have been enumerated in Section 48. None of these items mentions of pottery and lime manufacturing places whether Bye laws could be framed under this section in respect of such places is submitted for orders Wide tube

2 The expression "pottery and lime manufacturing places" has not been defined in the definition clause. As these Bye laws purport to regulate the conduct of business in such places, it is for the administrative section to decide whether a definition should be inserted in the Not necessary I think

3 Bye-law No 4 under the heading "1 general" is ambiguous. The words "allow only servants" which are now substituted with the rest of the sentence. The clause reads correctly if the words originally intended, namely, "at all hours while such place is open" are retained. The point has to be decided by the administrative section.

4. Bye-law No 5 under the same heading casts a duty on the public or the Sanitary officer for causing the removal of unwholesome food or drink from a hotel etc. A breach of this Bye-law entails the possibility of penal action being taken under the penal provision. Bye-law (8) It is for consideration whether this provision is desirable.

The following changes are suggested in the Bylaws put up for scrutiny

The definition Bylaw may also be numbered and the other Bylaws accordingly renumbered

2 The licence fee depends on whether a hotel or eatery is 1st 2nd or 3rd class. It is not known on what materials hotels are to be classed as 1st 2nd or 3rd class. The Bylaws give no information on this point. It is necessary that the Bylaws should set out the test which is to determine the class in

3 Reference to bicycle, pottery and brick manufacturing places in the byelaws have to be omitted There are no conditions set out in the byelaws to govern such places and reference to the places is perhaps a mistake in typing no licence for a clean is proposed in respect of these places.

4 The Punishments Clause in the byelaws may be limited to the Substantive penalty stamped thereon and the additional penalty for a continuing offence may be omitted as the Act does not provide for it

The proposed Bye-laws contain provisions for regulating the licensing etc of "ice and aerated water manufacturing places" This expression has not been defined in the definition clause of the bye-laws A definition of this expression, preferably on the lines of the definition contained

2 Bye-law No 4

Licensing fees have been prescribed in this bye law in respect of hotels, restaurants etc Hotels and restaurants have been classed as belonging to I^st class, II^nd class and III^rd class on the basis of the business of each day. This classification leaves in doubt regarding hotels which have their daily business ranging from Rs 10 to Rs 30 and Rs 5 to Rs 10 respectively, though by implication they come under the II^nd class and III^rd class

23) Certain changes have been suggested to make clear the class to which they ought to belong and they are for approval

24) A licensing fee of Rs 10 has been prescribed for private meat stall having business of Rs 10 per day

Draft Bye-laws of the Nellore Town Municipal council

It is not known whether stalls that have got business of less than Rs 10 per annum are proposed to be exempted from taking out a licence

25) See manufacturing places have been classed as belonging to I^st class As there is only one class of such places, it appears unnecessary to class them as belonging to the I^st class

26) The aerated water manufacturing places have been classed under two categories But no limit has been fixed as regards their daily business, as has been done in the case of hotels and restaurants.

27) In case of bye-laws which require the taking out of licence it is usual to prescribe the the Form of Application for licence and the Form of licence also and they are appended as Schedules at the end of the Bye-law It is for the administrative section to decide whether such

36) The following classification of the revised rates is suggested for consideration

Hotels or Restaurants having a turnover of Rs 20 and above per day —— I class

Hotels or Restaurants having a turnover of Rs 10 and above but not exceeding Rs 19 —— II class

Hotels or Restaurants having a turnover of Rs 5 and more, but not exceeding Rs 9 —— III class

Draft Bye-laws of Nellore Town Municipal Council

37) Item 3 of the Bye law prescribes the licensing fees for private meat stall. A uniform rate of Rs 10 has been fixed if the daily earning is Rs 10 or less. If the object is to enforce payment compulsorily, it is unnecessary to fix the maximum to Rs 10. In such a case, the rate of fees will be uniform for all such places of business, as has been done in respect of ~~Aerated~~ Ice manufacture (Item 5).

38) ~~As~~ regards the other points raised in paras 22 and 27 of the notice supra, (definition of Aerated water manufacturing place and model forms of licensing Applications) it is ~~submitted~~ submitted that such matters of detail could be incorporated in the rules of approved Bye laws of similar nature and there will be no risk of any legal ~~objection~~

41) The suggestion made in para 36 seems desirable and bye-law No 4 (1) may be approved subject to the proposed modification

42) As regards licensing of meat stalls (bye-law 4(3)) it seems preferable to license stalls having a business of Rs 10 or more or Rs 5 or more per day It is presumed that ~~there~~ it is not the intention to wholly exempt from licenses stalls with a business of more than Rs 10/- and to licence only smaller stalls

Copy of the Letter No L 15628, dated 7th May 1947 from the secret the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Revenue Depar the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, Kolar.

Subject - Bye-Laws for control of Hotels, Bakeries, Sweet-meat shops, etc., in Malur Town Municipality.

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No A5 L.B. 375-1/45-46 dated 8th April 1947 submitting the draft bye-laws duly revised, I am directed to forward herewith a copy of the further opinion furnished by the Law Secretariat in this behalf for information and communication to the Malu Town Municipal Council. The draft bye-laws may be kindly retransmitted duly clarifying the points now raised.

Records accompany.

Copy of the opinion furnished by the Law Secretariat.

The draft Bye laws as revised have been scrutinised. The following points arise for consideration and orders -

1 The proposed Bye-laws contain provisions for regulating the licensing etc , of ice and aerated water manufacturing places." This expression has not been defined in the definition clause of the bye-laws. A definition of this expression, preferably on the lines of the definition contained in he Bye-law framed by the Shimoga Town Municipality may perhaps be incorporated in the proposed Bye-laws.

2. Bye-Law No. 4 Licensing fees have been prescribed in this bye-law in respect of hotels, restaarants etc Hotels and restaurants have been classed as belonging to 1st Class, IInd class and IIIrd class on the basis of the business or each day. This classification leaves in doubt regarding hotels which have their daily business ranging from Rs.10 to 30.r and Rs. 5 to Rs.10 respectively, though by implication they came under thr IInd Class and IIIrd Class.

Certain changes have been suggested to make clear the class to which they ought to belong and they are for approval.

A licensing fee of Rs.10 has been prescribed for private meat stall having business of Rs.10 per day. It is not known whether stalls that have got business of less than Rs.10/- per day are proposed to be exempted from taking out a license.

Ice manufacturing places have been classed as belonging to Ist Class. As there is only one class of such places, it appears unnecessary to class them as belonging to the Ist Class.

The aerated water manufacturing places have been classed under two categories But no ~~limit~~ has been fixed as regards their daily business, as has been done in the case of hotels and restaurants in case of bye-laws which require the taking out or license, it is usual to prescribe the Form of Application for Licenss and the Form of License issued and they are apper as schedules at the end of the Bye-laws

It is for the administrative section to decide whether such prescribed forms may not be necessary in respect of the proposed Bye-Laws.
